APRIL FOOL JOKE ON POLICE

Gamblers Plead Guilty and Fined, Then Turn Tables on Informer.

Brs. Mary Winslow Awarded $200 Damages-Arthur McCann Arrested as Suspected Burglar.

A telephone message was received at the police station late yesterday aftergoon, that two ladies had seen the body of a man floating down the Ogden river. officer Thomas Bush quickly responded to the call and went to the river where he met the ladies and a number of gentiemen. The ladies said that they had seen the hand and head of a man coile above the water just east of the bridge, was floating down the The officer and men made a giream. The officer and then indue a guile thorough search down the river from the point where the ladies claim to have seen the man, but were unable to have seen the man, but were unable to find any trace of the body, and there was considerable excitement in the neighborhood for some time. After about two hours of industrious search up and down the river by the officers and a number of citizens, the supposed victim was found and identified as a log of wood dressed up with a coat, a wind wood dressed up with a coat, a wig

The complaining witness in these cases was not Mrs. Corbett, who has been prosecuting the gambiers so vigorbeen prosecuting the gambiers so vigor-ossy, but John Waite. The defendants were represented by Atty. Bowman, who in questioning the complaining winess brought out the fact that the gamblers have been giving him money on which to live and clothe himself. Immediately after the closing of the hear-ing of defendants, Mr. Bowman swore o a complaint charging Waite with gambling, which is also against the city ordinances. Waite's bond was fixed at 110, which was furnished by Mrs. ley, proprietress of a lodging house. His hearing will come up this week. ASKED FOR $10,000, GOT $200.

This morning in the district court here the jury in the case of Mary Win-slow vs the Ogden Rapid Transit company, brought in a verdict in favor of plaintiff for the sum of $200. The action was brought to recover $10,000 alleged to be due from defendant to plaintiff on ount of personal injuries received in il last. Plaintiff was crossing the wacks of defendant in a light spring wagon when, it was alleged, she was n into and injured by reason of the relessness and negligence of defendint's servants. The case has occupied four days in the court, but the jury hed a verdict after being out only a few minutes.

Wales, Sanpete Co., March 31.—The grim reaper again visited our ward last night. Only six days since it called home our venerable Bishop Rees. This time it has taken away one of our best young men, in the bloom of life, in the person of Nephi J. Rees, who fell a vic-tim of pneumonia. He was born in this place June 23, 1871, and was always an exemplary young man, sober, faithful and inoffensive. He was secretary of the Elders' quorum and ward teacher. He leaves a young wife and two small children, a father, brothers and sisters, and a host of relatives and friends to cherish his memory.

We have more sickness in this ward this spring than ever before; there are but few families if any that have escaped, either la grippe, mumps or som ailment or another, and the community is far from being clear of disease yet.

Patrick Feeney Assessed $20,000 Damages for Assaulting Girl.

Coalville, Summit Co., March 31 .-Judge C. W. Morse came out on the 31st to hold a short session of court this week. The case of William Patinson vs Patrick Feeney occupied the time of court today. The complaint charged the defendant with criminally assaulting a young girl, the daughter of plaintiff. 15 years of age, and effecting her ruin. The victim of his wiles gave birth to a child December last. The plaintiff sued for $40,000 damages. The jury was out only 20 minutes and jury was out only 20 minutes and brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $20,000.

HOME DRAMATICS.

The play that was given here on Saturday evening by the Home Dramatic association was a great success, and a nice sum was raised for the benefit of the ward. All the characters were well taken.
